VIVE LA WESTWOOD

It becomes clearer how fashion designer Vivienne Westwood enchants her fans after reading the interviews and the creative producing and biographical and personal information that are reprocessed in the book Fashion: Vivienne Westwood (Taschen) by Terry Jones. Up to now these insights were archived by the London magazine i-D. Now they are presented on 120 pages for €29,99.

TAKE A SEAT

Who said that only people should wear denim? Doesn't it fit furniture as well? The item shown below is not a pile of pillows but rather a couch fixed with a high-grade steel frame. With a size of 70 x 210 x 130 centimeters this "Cushion" couch by Kare (about €3,995) offers enough space to relax in a cool style. Consistent with the couch by Kare, the seating cube pictured left by trendrooms.com (about €150) is made of recycled denim. Because of the pockets and labels, which remain on the fabric, every piece is unique. Thanks to a handle it can be moved and transported easily. With a size of 40 x 40 x 40 centimeters it is a perfect piece to spice up small apartments.

FRED PERRY HAS NO DOUBT

Fred Perry has collaborated with Californian band No Doubt for a limited edition line. The collection includes variants of classic Fred Perry pieces with stylistic influences from the fields of ska, punk and reggae. Lead singer Gwen Stefani says, "Fred Perry is a classic inspiration that has been part of our style since the beginning. Collaborating with Fred Perry is a perfect fit for us." The series of polo shirt, V-neck sweater and bomber jacket will be available on fredperry.us first and then globally launched in spring 2013.

EDITOR'S PICKS

JULIETTE NGUYEN, FASHION EDITOR

KEEP IT WARM

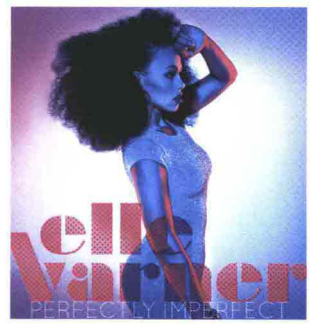
For a safe winter-walk my doctor suggests to take out the earrings and to wear a warm beanie so that nothing freezes. I like that. And who really needs earrings anyway if you have such a nice Stüssy pom-pom hat?

VIETNAM, MY LOVE

Bored of fair-food snacks? Than how about a short visit to Cô Cô bánh mì deli at Rosenthalerstraße in Berlin? Here you can experience the taste of real Vietnamese sandwiches. Yummy!

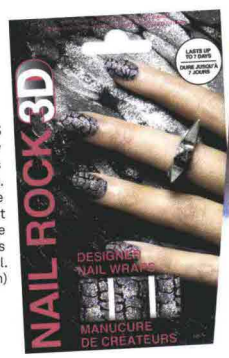
CATCHY TUNE

She could be the next Alicia Keys. Elle Varner has the look and of course the voice. And I must admit, I can't hardly drive my car without listening to track number two "Only Wanna Give It To You."



ROCK YOUR NAILS

Gluing is the new drawing–whether it's lashes or nails. These nail wraps are much more convenient than polishing because nothing drops, peels or smells at all. (nailrock.com)



JUMP AROUND!

Definitely not the most practical piece of clothing, but a true eyecatcher. I felt instantly in love with Tsumori Chisato's version of a jumpsuit.

SLUSHY SNEAKER

It's funny. We buy a brand new sneaker and instead of being content with the new shoe we can't wait to get it dirty for the use-effect. With the sneaker from Philippe Modell it goes much faster!
