Enric Miralles è stato un architetto spagnolo, tra i più noti sulla scena internazionale. Dopo aver lavorato per un lungo periodo con Carme Pinós, nel 1991 incontra l'architetto italiano Benedetta Tagliabue con il quale fonderà lo studio EMBT. Lo studio raggiunge la notorietà internazionale nel 1999 con il progetto per la sede del Parlamento Scozzese, ancora incompleto al momento della morte prematura di Miralles.
